

My husband and I strongly oppose allowing expanded ownership to mega media corporations. We favor individual, smaller broadcasting firms that can respond quickly and locally. We feel the citizens have a right to hear many different points of view and believe expanded decentralization will destroy our rights to this freedom. We count on you to represent the citizen, not the huge broadcast corporations.